

Newsletter Nordic Bookbinding Society

November 2022

Dear Fellow Bookbinders,

Since our meeting in Leksand earlier this year the Nordic Bookbinding Society is officially established and has a new website. The website is still being developed and will have a few updates and more info to be added during the autumn.

Board meeting in Oslo

The Nordic Society of Bookbinders board members will meet in Oslo, November 2022, to further establish the Society's aims, visions, rules, laws, and plan the future of the Society. For this meeting we have received financial support from the Nordic Cultural Foundation / Nordisk Kulturfond.

2023 the Society will meet in Copenhagen!

Our aim for this meeting is for the Nordic countries to meet and to start planning upcoming exhibitions, activities, events and will be a chance to meet physically to talk about bookbinding.

More information about this meeting will come!

Have a lovely autumn

and please sign up for our newsletters via the website to receive further information!

Best Regards
